A copy of this note was left at the palace early yesterday morning by the Secretary of the American Embassy, Hugh S. Gibson. During the course of the afternoon the president prepared a message, which will be read at the session of congress today, recommending the framing of a new bill. This, it is understood, will extend amnesty only to prisoners taken at the recent rising in Oriente and to other purely political offenders.

MOTHER PUTS STOP TO AMPUTATION

Claims That it Would Be Criminal for Daughter to be Cripple.

TROLLEY CAR VICTIM.

Hospital Surgeons in Quandary—Will Apepal to Corporation Counsel for Instructions.

Newark, N. J., March 14.—"I had rather my daughter should die than see her go through life with one leg. It is criminal to allow a girl to live with one leg. I won't let them operate."

With this ultimatum from Mrs. Thos. Reilly holding them back from amputating the injured leg of little Elizabeth Reill, ten year old girl run down by a trolley car, the surgeons of the city hospital here are in a dilemma today. Under the law they cannot perform the operation unless the parents consent and the child's condition is such that her death can only be averted it is feared, by the operation.

In their quandry the surgeons are intending to appeal to the corporation counsel for instructions as to how far they may go to save the child's life in the face of the mother's refusal to permit them to operate. Mrs. Reilly so far has remained obdurate against all the arguments surgeons could advance.

"A girl is better dead," she said, "than going through life with one leg. What chance of happiness has a one-legged girl. A man might be able to make a living but a girl, why no one would marry her and her whole life would be miserable."

The need of amputation the surgeons say is not due to the extent of the injury to the limb so much as to the signs of blood poisoning already apparent.

SOUTHERN WILL PAY DAMAGES

Court of Appeals Upholds Decision of Lower Court in Case of Mail Carrier.

Richmond, Va., March 14.—Unique points were raised in the case of the Southern Railway against Baptist from the Circuit Court of Halifax county, in the State Court of Appeals which yesterday handed down an opinion by which the Southern Railway Company will pay William B. Chandler $10,000 damages. Some two years ago, Chandler, a rural mail carrier, whose home is at Scottsburg, started to the station to begin his work for the day. He waited the arrival of the early train from Richmond. Going to the station he drove a horse which was a bit scarry. Just as he got to the station the train came up. The horse became frightened and began to rear and plunge. It was charged that the engineer made no effort to stop the train or to in any way prevent the danger to Mr. Chandler.

The horse became frantic and Mr. Baptist, a son-in-law of Mr. Chandler, who was at the station, went to the assistance of Mr. Chandler. The horse was still very unmanageable and as the train got nearer it made a desperate lung and threw Mr. Baptist against or under the train, inflicting injuries which kept him in the hospital for many months and virtually crippeld him for life. He incurred enormous hospital bills and physicians declare he will never completely recover from the effects of the injuries sustained. Suit was brought in the Circuit Court of Halifax and the jury gave a verdict for $10,000. From this the railroad appealed and the decision yesterday upholds that verdict.

MUNICIPAL SLAUGHTER HOUSE.

Meeting of the Board of Health Last Night to Consider Inspection of Cattle.

At a meeting of the City Board of Health last night the question of operating a municipal slaughter house was the most important business up before the board. Immediate action is to be taken upon this matter. A committee composed of the following members of the health board, W. W. Ballenger, chairman, F. C. Spinks, C. B. Marshall, James Fitzgerald, and A. D. Brockett, having been appointed to designate a temporary abattoir within a few days.

Section 24 of the new health laws of the city require inspection of all cattle killed and sold for food within the city, but does cover the slaughtering of small stock, such as calves, sheep and hogs. Should the tempomary municipal slaughter house be patronized by the local meat dealers, it is expected that some arrangement will likely be made for the erection of a new brick building constructed on a co-operative basis by all the meat dealers in Alexandria, where cattle can be killed under inspection.

A temporary abattoir, the slaughter house of Aaron Odell is under consideration by the committee. Whatever arrangements are made for the temporary abatetor, it is the intention of the city health officers to see that all meat killed and sold in Alexandria is inspected at the time of killing.

Arrangements for slaughtering cattle at the proposed municipal slaughter house provides for the killing and dressing of cattle and small stock for local meat dealers at a specified price per head.

FIGHT FOR WOMAN'S MINIMUM WAGE LAW

Miss Mary McDowell Issues Warning to Illinois Legislature.

LT.GOV.O'HARA DARING

Big Employers Fighting Movement —Claim That Increased Wages Would be Paid by Consumers.

Chicago, March 14.—"The fight for a woman's minimum wage law in Illinois and other states of this nation must not stop now. Public sentiment has become too strong to permit business interest to block it."

Miss Mary McDowell, head of the Chicago University Settlement House, and noted co-worker to Jane Addams, issued this warning today to members of the Illinois State Legislature who have been under pressure to drop consideration of a state minimum wage law, at this session.

Miss McDowell attended nearly every hearing before the Illinois Senate White Slave Investigating Committee when it questioned big employers about the wages paid young girls and women. She is intensely interested in the fight for the wage bill and is ready to go to Springfield to speak in its behalf.

"Lieut. Governor O'Hara has been so daring—he has been almost rash, in bringing these facts about low wages before the public,' said Miss McDowell. "I cannot believe the Senators will surrender now."

Big employers and big business interests in Chicago, supported by many Chicago newspapers,are fighting the State minimum wage bill with two kinds of fire. First they insist that minimum wage legislation should be Federal rather that state and that a State law will deal a severe blow at Illinois industries because they will suffer in competition with industries of other States. Second, They assert that the increased wages, in the long run, will be borne by the great number of consumers and will boost the high cost of living.

INVESTIGATION OF DEATH

No Evidence to Show That the Late Admiral Eaton Met Foul Play

After several hours spent yesterday at the home of Rear Admiral Joseph G. Eaton, retired, in Norwell, Mass., who died under mysterous circumstances, Saturday, John H. Scott, a state detective, and John Condon, deputy sheriff, declared last night that no evidence had been found to justify an arrest.

They closely quistioned Rear Admiral Eaton's widow and her mother, Mrs. Virginia Harrison, but neither could supply anything to corroborate the belief of the police that Rear Admiral Eaton was poisoned.

The district attorney has not yet received the report of Prof. Whitney, of Harvard, to whom was submitted the internal organs of Rear Admiral Eaton for analysis. Until that report is received no action can be taken by the district attorney or the police.

Mrs. Eaton and her mother became ill yesterday as result of worry over the police activity.

They had fully recovered last night, but acting under orders of their counsel, Judge George W. Kilby, declined to see newspaper men. Judge Kilby is as reticent as the police, but has told friends that the investigation will not result in any arrests.

"The rear admiral's death was due to natural causes, not poison," he said last night. "Everything will be fully explained when the proper time comes."

FINNEY TO COLLECT SALARY

Act Creating Police Justice of Alexandria County Declared to be Constitutional

As a result of a descision handed down by the Supreme Court of Appeals yesterday Police Justice R. Gordon Finney, of Alexandria County will be able to collect his back salary for the past twelve months which has been held up by the state auditor at the request of Attorney General Samuel W. Williams of Richmond.

The Supreme Court yesterday dismissed the application of W. B. Settle, of Alexandria County, for a writ of habeas corpus and in doing so declared the act of the legislature creating the office of Police Justice n Alexandria County was constitutional. Mr. Finney was appointed over a year ago at a salary of $600 per annum, under the act which provided that counties having more than 300 person to the square mile could have a police justice who would have jurisdicaton over police questions. After Mr. Finney had served a number of months without compensation, the state authorities refused to pay his salary, he resigned but at the request of Judge J. B. T. Thornton, of the circuit court, he withdrew his resignation as the officals of Alexandria County agreed to carry the constitutionality of the act to the Supreme Court. This was effective by haing Justice Finney impose a fine upon W. B. Settle, which the latter refused to pay. He was then sentenced to jail and made an application to the Supreme court of Appeals for a writ of habeas corpus.

VIRGINIA EXPECTS JUDGESHIP.

Successor to Nathan Goff Will Be From This State, is Belief.

Virginians in Washington today assert that a lawyer from that state will be appointed to the bench on the Fourth Circuit to succeed Judge Nathan Goff, of West Virginia, when he resigns to enter the United States Senate. The only handicap now in Virgnia, it is asserted, is that the State is badly split as to its favorite son for the judicial honor and has not centered upon any one man.

Harry St. George Tucker has seen Attorney-General McReynolds and urged the appointment of Lucien B. Cox, of Roanoke, and Eugene Massie has appeared in behalf of A. W. Patterson, of Richmond. Friends of C. V. Meredith, of Richmond, are working hard for him, and R. Walton Moore has been at the Department of Justice to back John S. Barbour, of Fairfax.

Other Virginians advanced for the honor are Richard Evelyn Byrd, of Winchester, and Walter H. Taylor, of Norfolk.

INAUGURATION VICTIM.

Miss Wilson, Court Clerk, Dies at Elkins of Pneumonia.

Elkins, Va., March 14.—Miss Charlotte Lee Wilson, 38 years old, for a long time connected with the office of the county clerk and for the past several years its deputy, died yesterday of pneumonia, contracted while attending the inauguration in Washington.

Miss Wilson was prominently identified with the Daughters of the Confederacy and the Daughters of the American Revolution, and it was largely through her efforts that the Confederate monument at Beverley was erected.

Appeal Dismissed.

Richmond, Va., March 14.—Forty-eight hours is not too short a time to railroad a criminal to the electric chair, according to the decision yesterday of the Supreme Court of Appeals in the case of Alfred Wright. The defendant, a negro, was tried, convicted and sentenced to death within two days after commission of criminal assault on Mrs. Bertha Ferguson, in Appomattox county last June. His appeal was based on the sole ground that his lawyers should have had more time in which to prepare his case. It was dismissed today.

SLAIN BY MADMAN.

Young Fellow Formerly in Asylum Grows Jealous.

Shamokin, Pa., March. 14.—After her declaration that she would not marry Harry Sabo, his brother, Joseph at Kulpmont, it is alleged, shot and instantly killed Miss Sophia Harvath, a pretty nine-teen year old girl. Following the shooting, he escaped to the mountains. His brother, was arrested Wednesday night on suspicion of being implicated in the murder.

The victim came from Europe last year, and procured work as a mill girl in New York. She fell in love with a young man there recently, and agreed to marry him next Easter. His sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Masewa, lives in Kulpmont, and last week the girl arrived to pay her a lengthy visit. At a house party given in her honor the girl met the Sabo brothers, and Harry fell in love with her on sight and asked her to marry him. She replied she was engaged to another.

The disappointment suitor told his brother about the affair, and the latter said he would call on the girl and urge her to marry Harry.

The brothers lived in Diamondtown, four miles from Kulpmont, and they rode to Kulpmont Tuesday evening, and about 9:30 knocked on the door of the Masewa home, Sophia Harvath, stepped out on the porch and asked the visitors what they desired. Joseph Sabo said he wanted her to marry his brother whereupon she said: No I love another man and will become his wife."

Joseph thereupon it is charged, fired a revolver point blank at her, and a bullet pierced the girl's heart. As she fell dead Sabo disappeared. His brother went to the home of a friend close by. As Mrs. Masewa heard the revolver shot she opened the door and discovered the corpse.

A NEW NAME FOR AN OLD DOG.

The donning of false colors by those whose mission in life is deception, has been a favorable trick of both animals and men since Aesop placed a sheep skin over the tawny hide of a wolf. Generally those who try the game have many things in common with the beast of legendary fame.

Since the inauguration of Woodrow Wilson, ten days ago, we have witnessed in Virginia the raising of a great hue and cry by the so-called "progressives" who are opposing the dominant faction of the party in the State whom they term as 'conservatives." But stripping the fleece from these men who are using a title they little deserve we find the same old crowd of anti-organization leaders, masquerading in false colors. It is the old dog by a new name.

We find the same old crowd of discontented "outs" trying to get "in." by using the same old worn-out platform, telling the same old political lies, breeding the same old personal slanders. Defeated in every election, discredited by the people in every section of the State, they hope for a political rejuvenation by assuming the role of "progressives" without having the faintest conception of what that term imples. They are found on the side of Wilson simply because the leaders of the party in Virginia were not in favor of his nomination in Baltimore. If the organization in Virginia had declared for Wilson early in the race these men who now so loudly proclaim themselves as his admiring supporters would have been found advocating the candidacy of some one else.

The best way to judge a situation at large is to make an examination of similar conditions at home. Here in Alexandria the so-called "progressive" leaders for the greater part are the anti-organization men of this community. And while they now ask the support of Wilson for themselves or their friends they were utterly indifferent to his election last fall and neither helped him financially or otherwise in the conduct of the campaign in this city.

NEW ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF TREASURY.

As was stated in the Gazette John Skelton Williams, of Richmond, Va., was yesterday appointed assistant Secretary of the Treasury, and his nomination sent to the Senate by President Wilson.

The appointment is the first recognition Virginia has received from the new administration. No doubt prevails as to Mr. Williams' independence in politics.

The appointment was announced shortly after the visit to the President of Senators Martin and Swanson of Virginia.

Mr. Williams probably will take charge of the fiscal bureau of the Treasury.

For two decades the Richmond financier, who is a brother of R. Lancaster Williams, of Baltimore, and who is interested in the firm of Middendorf, Williams & Co., has been engaged in the railway and industrial development of the South.

For years Mr. Williams was the president of the Seaboard Air Line Railway. He organized a group of smaller roads into the present Seaboard system and placed it on a competitive footing with the other great transportation systems of the South.

When the Seaboard was originally formed, Mr. Williams then about 30 years of age, led the most spectacular fight before the Virginia Legislature for a franchise with which to build a competing life from Richmond to Washington.

The owners of the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac Railroad then as now, the only rail line between the Virginia and National capitals, refused to allow the movement of the Seaboard trains north of Richmond, thereby bottling up the newly formed Seaboard system and rendering it but little more than a local road.

Mr. Williams appealed to the Virginia legislature for a franchise to paralle to Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac to Washington. His argument was so unanswerable that the legislature granted the appeal in face of the fact that the state was a part owner of the old road. When this franchise was authorized the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac compromised and allowed the Seaboard equal privileges over the old line.

The battle brought Mr. Williams to the railroad and business world and resulted in his being taken into the confidence of some of the leading bankers of the east.

PICTURE OF ROOSEVELT BROUGHT TEN CENTS.

The following incident, possibly of national interest as inflicting the rating of the neighborhood of Monterey Va., of the country's Big-I statesman may be related without any breach of confidence inasmuch as it was told by a Democrat and not bya disgruntled old-liner or reactionary:

At a largely attended sale in Highland last week, while selling the usual household goods, bric-a-brac, and junk, the auctioneer suddenly called out, "And now, gentlemen, I offer this life-size bust picture of Theodore Rosevelt—the leading American—statesman, governor, soldier, vice president, hunter, bull moose—Teddy, The Immortal."

A moment's silence followed, then he called again:

'How much do I hear, gentlemen? Start it along."

More silence. Again the crier's voice rang out in urgent appeal. More silence—the painful sort. No bids were offered. Time passed and no response. The crier's voice grew more plainitve and was filled with pleading Earnestly he cried—cried until the weeping could be detected in the invisible voice, bnt never an answering bid.

Finally, seeing that "the glory had departed from the once favored 'Israel," a bystander wrote "Ichabod" across the erudite forehead by bidding ten cents, and to him it was knocked down. Sic transit, etc.

The old fable of Mercury who disguised himself as a human being, and came to earth to ascertain what men thought of him, is often brought to mind. The fleet-footed diety visited a shop where busts were for sale After pricing those of Jupiter, Minerva Juno and others, he passed down the room and picked up one representing himself and inquired the price of it. The scupltor answered by saying if he really meant business and would purchase either of the other representations, he would throw that of Mercury in gratis.

Pushing Good Roads.

Washington, March 14.—Creation of a new House commitee to have charge of pushing the "good roads" propaganda was a campaig nlaunched today by Representative Slemp, of Virginia. He is buttonholing Democratic leaders with a suggestion to split the House Post Office and Post Roads committee into two committees, giving one charge of Post Office affairs exclusively and another that of post roads.

Support is expected by Slemp in his movement from "good roads" Congressmen, numbering over a score of enthusiasts.

SMILES.

By The Second Ward Bard.

THE POOR DOGS.

Now City Council's going to put us in an awful fix,
You haven't heard the latest of its legislative tricks?
Why, they are gonig to try to solve the hydrophobia puzzle
By making every canine brute go dressed- up in a muzzle.

So Doctor Allen's poor old Jack, and Moxley Low's white setter,
And Mr. Brent's fox-terrier must wear a horrid fetter,
And Harmon Roberts' pointers and
Charlie Corgan's hound
Will be obliged to wear these things or languish in the pound.

The beasts will suffer horribly, and
'twill your heartstrings pull,
To see a wretched wire cage on
Dr. Powell's bull,
And Clifton Howard's fuzzy dog and Justice Pelton's poodle
Must muzzled be unless their owners want to pay the boodle.

And so the Council takes its spite upon these hapless dogs,
And wants to make them harmless,
like canary birds or frogs,
But does it not occur to you this city might condemn
These councilmen and pass a law to straightway muzzle them.

If Jack Johnson is black, is Harrie White?

If J. P. Morgan is ill, is Ward Boswell?

If our Circuit Judge is still in town, is Nevell Greenaway ?

We see a Richmond banker has gotten a fine position under the new administration. Cheer up, boys. One of you is bound to get that postmastership.

He regulates the politics in Alexandria County,
And, as the bankrupts' referee, he draws on federal bounty,
He's quite a fiend on motor boats,and gives us lots of blarney About sea-farnig ventures. He's our handsome Walter Varney.

THE TEST THAT TELLS.

Is The Test of Time. Many Alexandria People Have Made This Test.

Years ago this Alexandria citizen told in a public statement the benefit derived from Doan's Kidney Pills.

The statement is now confirmed—the testimony complete. Instances like this are numerous. They doubly prove the merit of Doan's Kidney Pills. Can any Alexandria reader demand more convincing proof? It's Alexandria testimony—it may be investigated.

Mrs. Anine Scott, 110 Prince street, strong friend to Doan's Kidney Pills Alexandria, Va., says: "I am the same today, as I was in 1910 when I publicly told of the cure they had made for me. This cure has been lasting, but I occasionally use Doan's Kidney Pills as a preventive. I had pains in my back and I could not rest well. In the morning I always felt tired and worn out, and I also had dizzy spells. Doan's Kidney Pills did such good world that it is a pleasure to recommend them to other kidney sufferers."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Alienists yesterday examined the first "crank" of the Wilson administration. The man gave his name as Dr. Charles A. Schwab, of Dallas, Texas. He is being detained in the Washington asylum, in which institution he was placed Tuesday when arrested by Secret Service men on his arrival in Washington. The man said he was on his way to the White house to be sworn in as President and he had in his possession a number of written messages purporting to have been sent to him by Chief Justice White, of the Supreme Court. It is believed that he wrote them himself.

A New Kind of Roofing
Asphalt Gravel That Will Last Years—Can be Used Anywhere
Cumberland, Md. — Among many improvements at the new Y. C. building is the asphalt gravel (Security brand) that was put under direction of Mr. Adam May.
A fairy tale is told about roofing by Mr. A. M. Strickland, Elkton, Md. About fifteen years he built the Elkton Foundry and covered the roof with Security Asphalt Gravel roofing and four years afterward the building and contents were consumed by fire. Nothing was left but the walls and roofing.
Being of an economical turn of mind he ordered the carpenters to tear down the roofing in strips, losing only the laps.
He used these strips of roofing on his new foundry building and it is in good condition today after ten years of active service.
It would be difficult to believe such a tale, because tin, iron and slate or any other composition roofing would have gone to smash or curled up and blown away in such a conflagration.
There is reason to believe that this is true, because it stood the test of a similar fire in the B. & O. hay barn at Mt. Clare Station, Baltimore, some years ago.
This roofing can be purchased of

VEGETABLES PLENTIFUL

Market Is Well Supplied and Prices Not Very High.

The vegetables that are now coming into the local market are of the very best quality in taste and looks. Crisp home grown lettuce and green onions are now being displayed, the best heads sell for 10 cents for very large while good size heads can be bought for 5 cents. Onions are 3 for five cents. New beets are sold for 8 cents a bunch. Asparagus is becoming plentiful, but prices still hold at 20 cents a bunch for large bunches.

Green peppers and new cabbage look very fine today and should be in demand, as prices are low.

The best country eggs sell for 25 cents a dozen and it seemsthat Easter will not bring about much of an increase in the cost of eggs.

The market in meats is very much as it was last week for the consumer The dealers in some sections claim, however, that they cannot stand the increase of prices charged by packers and have raised meat prices slightly but local dealers say they will not raise prices on meats unless they go much higher than they are at present.

Good beef for stewing can be purchased at the low price of 15 cents a pound. The best cuts and steaks bring 25 to 35 cents a pound.

Earthquake Shock.

Washington, March 14.—Georgetown University seismographs registered a pronounced earthquake shock early today. The disturbance began at 4:04 a. m., and continued until 5:22. Father Thorndorff said the shocks were registered almost exclusively on the north-south component of the seismograph and the record indicated that the center of the disturbance was probably 1,500 or 1,600 miles distant from Washington.

VIRGINIA WOMAN IN TROUBLE.

Mrs. Madge Arrowsmith Arrested in New York.

New York, March 14,—Mrs. Madge Arrowsmith, of Richmond, Va., who says she came to this City five weeks ago to interest English capitalists in a Southern land scheme, was yesterday arranged before United State Commissioner Shields on the charge of having used the mails on October 15 last to defraud Herbert W. Ozlin, of Richmond,, Va., out of $500.

The woman, who was found at the Hotel Victoria, admitted getting the money from Ozlin, but denied making the false and fraudulent representation alleged in the complaint.

It is charged that Mrs. Arrowsmith represented herself to be the owner of farm lands on the James River, in the state of Virginia, and introduced Ozlin to deposit with her $500 as an evidence of good faith to become manager of the farm lands. It is charged that Mrs. Arrowsmith did not own or control any farm lands.

Mrs. Arrowsmith, who is about fifty years of age, said former judge Roger Pryor and Senator Pennypacker would vouch for her good character. On her promise to pay back the deposited money to Ozlin, Assistance United States District Attorney Gruber adjoined the hearing until March 20,Mrs. Arrowsmith was paroled.

Richmond, Va., March 13—Mrs.Madge Arrowsmith, charged with having used the mails to defraud Herbert W. Ozlin a brother of Attorney Thomas W Ozlin of Richmond, Came to Richmond last October from a small town in Pennsylvania just previous to the transaction which led to her arrest.

Nothing is known here of her previous life.

NARROW ESCAPE

A steel rocket containing Rodman Law, the "human fly" in which he intended to eb shot 3,500 feet into the air descending by a parachute, exploded in New York yesterday afternoon when 800 pounds of powder behind it was fired. Law was hurled 25 feet from his seat in the rocket, but was unhurt.

Prottected by padding and helmet Law crawled into the rocket with his parachute and gave the order to fire The fuse was lighted and uttered for 30 seconds. There was a burst of flame a cloud of smoke and a terrific report Hundreds of Spectators straining their eyes for a sight of the great rocket hurtling through the air, saw it leap forward a few feet and burst into fragments.

Law was hurled violently through the air and to the ground. His hair and eyebrows were burnt off. For 10 seconds he was unconscious. Then he got up and looked around.

"Darn that thing!" he exclaimed. I thought I was going up."

Panic spread among the the spectators immediattely after the explosion It seemed inconceivable that Law could have escaped being blown to bits, and several women became hysterical. When those who were managing the exploit reached the scene they were surprised to find Law struggling on the ground in the midst of the burning frame work of the scaffolding which had supported the rocket. His miraculous escape was explained by the fact that the head of the rocket on which he stood, shoulder high in a hollow extension, was made of an extra thickness of steel. The rest of the rocket, six feet in length and two and a half feet n diameter, was blown to atoms.

Law walked unassisted to a nearby house to have his burns dressed. He declares that he would make a second attempt as soon as another rocket could be constructed by the moving picture interests which employed him.

ANNIVERSARY OF BLIZZARD.

Memorable Winter Storm Quarter of a Century Ago.

On Sunday night, March 14, 1888, a snow and windstorm started in this vicinity and city which kept most people within doors, and empty pews in the churches were numerous that night.

The wind attained a high velocity and the snow was blown through the air in horizontal lines, suggestive of innumerable white ropes.

Before morning the telegraph poles between New York and Washington had been prostrated, as also in other sections, and for several days communication was interrupted.

For a time telegraphic dispatches from Europe were received in Alexandria via Chicago. After having been flashed across the Atlantic the dispatches were relayed from New England centers to the windy city, from which point they were sent to Washington and subsequently to the Gazette office in Alexandria.

It was during one of the days this blizzard was raging that Roscoe Conklin, former Senator from New York, had a fatal experience.

When the frigid wave struck New York thousands of persons who were engaged in the southern section of that city, but who reside in northern parts, found themselves trapped as it were and unable to get home at the close of the day. It was impossible for the elevated trains to run, and the surface cars, creeping slowly were overflowing with passengers anxious to return to their firesides. Pedestrians found it impossible to face the snow and keen wind, and many abandoning all intention of going home, rushed to the down town hotels where they determined to pass the night. In a short time accommodations were at a premium, and the disheartening reply, "we're full," sent hundreds into the streets who would have paid liberally for a refuge from the elements and places upon which to lay their heads. The corridors of the hotels became crowded with cots before midnight.

It was during the latter part of that memorable day that the late senator started toward his home from the down town section. Hack drivers were demanding an enormous tariff from such as were compelled to avail themselves of their services, and Conklin stopped one of the Jehus and asked the price for carrying him to his home in the northern part of the city. The driver fixed the sum at fifty dollars. Conklin refused to pay him such a price and determined to brave the elements. He plodded along until he fell exhausted in a park, where he was recognized by friends and transported to his home. Within a few days he was suffering from a terrible earache, brought on by exposure, and later his suffering became agonizing. The late senator paced the floo. of his bed room enduring the greatest pain until death came to his relief.

Deserted Minister for Burglar.

Chicago, March 14.—Rev. Nestor K. Clarkson, a Chicago missionery, who was deserted by his wife for Owen W. Conn, the confessed "society" burglar under arrest in San Francisco, Cal., Wednesday threw considerable light on the woman's career, She is said to have quit five children to go with the man who now declared that he robbed to provide her with luxuries.

Clarkson said that his first knowledge of the relations between Conn and Mrs. Clarkson came when he intercepted a leter written to her by Conn, who was then in prison at Wuupon, Wis., for robbery.

Clarkson wrote to Conn asking him to leave Mrs. Clarkson alone. Conn replied that his intentions were honorable.

Clarkson married twelve years ag. His bride was eighteen years of age. She met Conn while acting as a jail missionary, and her devotion for him develepod from her attempts to reform him, according to the husband.

After Conn was released he professed religion, and often visited at the Clarkson home.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Thirteen persons are reported to have been killed and propedty valued at several hundred thousand dollars destroyed by a wind and rain storm which swept portions of Louisiana, Texas, Alabama, Mississippi and Tennessee Wednesday. A deluge of rain extended over a more extensive area and practically demoralized telegraph and telephone service for several hours. Only meagre reports from the stricken districts were obtainable. Great property damage and loss of life was reported in Provencal and Many, La. The town of Provencal practically was wiped out. The property damage at Brookeland, Tex, near the Louisiana border was estimated at $100,000. While only one person was reported killed at that point many were seriously injured.

Discovery of an ancient Roman or Greek coin in an Illinois Indian mound at least 3,000 years old may open an unrevealed epoch in ancient American history, according to Dr. Alfred Emerson, of Chicago. Dr. Emerson said that he had never seen a coin like it, and could only estimate that it had been made in Rome or Greece during the period between 250 B. C., and 250 A. D. "It shows," he said, "that there must have been some prehistoric connection with the American continent before the white invasion.

By the close vote of 45 in favor to 50 against the Nebraska House on Wednesday defeated the proposed constitutional amendment permitting women to vote. Sixty votes, or two-thirds of the House membership, were required ta pass the bill. Suffrage leaders declare that unless a reconsideration can be obtained in the legislature, an attempt would be made to bring the question to a vote of the people through the initiative and referendum law.

Constitutionalists overthrew the federal garrison at Nogales, Sonora, Mexico, last night and are now in possession of the border town, after a fight which continued for twelve hours. Casualties are estimated at 100 dead and twice as many wounded on both sides. Private Allen A. Umfleet, Troop G, Fifth Cavalry, U. S. A., was seriously wounded by a rebel bullet, while doing police duty near the international line at Nogales, Tex. The shot passed through his face from nose to ear. No other Americans were injured. Lieut. Col. Tate at once sent word to Gen. Obregon, in command of the rebel forces: "You have shot one of my men. Cease firing or I shall be after you at once."

Granted Insurance After Consumption

(There are so many cases of Consumption reported where the details show the disease started with a cold or a cough, that it is really surprising that people are not more anxious to immediately stop these apparently minor troubles. Our advice is "stop the cough or cold, if possible, without delay." Otherwise more serious troubles are likely to follow. If the medicines you are now taking do not bring relief, try Eckman's Alterative, as this man did:—

287 Bean St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Gentlemen: I am giving you below a brief history of my case, which I trust you will use for the benefit of those suffering from any similar troubles.

"About a year and a half ago I noticed that my health was rapidly failing, until at the end of six months my weight had fallen to 129 pounds. I was troubled with night sweats, a severe cough and was very weak, having in fact absolutely no ambition whatever. About this time I consulted a physician, who told me my lungs were affected. Not satisfied I went to another doctor, who after examining me said that I was in the first stages of consumption. At this point I started to take Eckman's Alterative. The night sweats stopped almost immediately, my cough became looser and gradually disappeared. My weight is now 142 pounds and my physician has pronounced me perfectly sound—which, together with the fact that I have been accepted by two different insurance companies for insurance, makes me sure of my entire recovery by Eckman's Alterative. I should be very glad to communicate with any one who would be interested in my case.

(Sworn Affidavit) W. E. GEE.

Eckman's Alterative is effective in Bronchitis, Asthma, Hay Fever, Throat and Lung Trouble, and in upbuilding the system. Does not contain poisons, opiates or habit-forming drugs. Ask for booklet telling of recoveries, and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for more evidence. For sale by all leading druggists
